Hoosier Films Annual Festival goes virtual! Film Festival to be held online September 3-6, 2020

This year, the Hoosier Films Annual Festival will be presented completely online. Festival-goers can stream festival films on demand on the Hoosier Films streaming platform for the duration of the festival. All pass-holders will also have access to live-streamed films, interactive Q&A sessions, and more on the Hopin.to platform.

The festival was originally planned for March 2020, but due to concerns about the spread of Covid-19 it was rescheduled for September 3-6th.

Hoosier Films co-founder and CEO Meredith McGriff says “We're grateful for the community’s support of Hoosier Films, especially the venues, vendors, and sponsors who have been so helpful and flexible while we adjust our plans. Our top priority this year is to keep everyone safe and healthy.”

The festival, which is limited to films made in Indiana and/or by Indiana filmmakers, will screen 40 films during its inaugural event, including 3 feature films and 37 short films. Filmmakers included in the festival hail from all over the state of Indiana, and the films cover a range of genres, including comedy, drama, sci-fi, horror, and more.

The complete schedule for the festival, including details about each of the films being shown, can be browsed at <https://festival.hoosierfilms.com>.

Hoosier Films can also be found on Facebook (www.facebook.com/HoosierFilms), Instagram (www.instagram.com/HoosierFilms), and Twitter (www.twitter.com/Hoosier_Films), and by following the festival hashtag, #HFAF2020.
